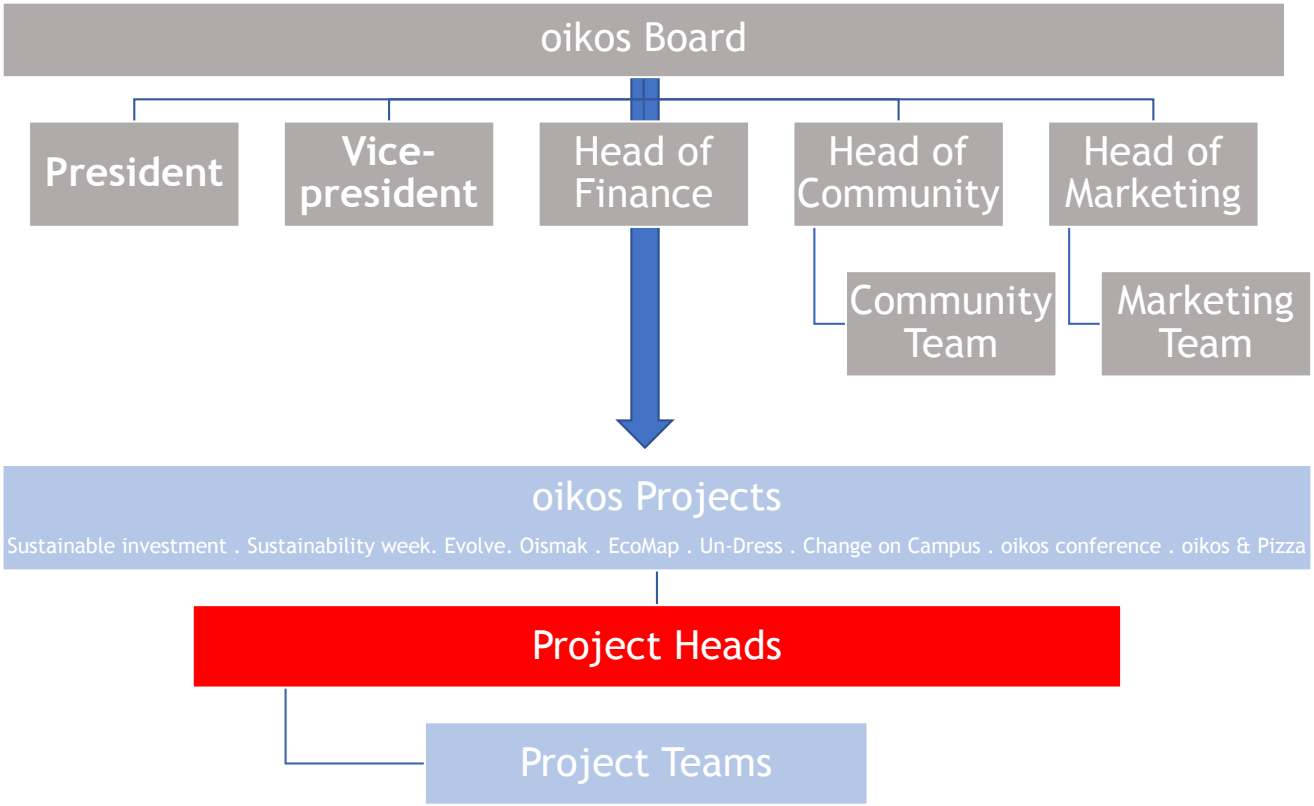
PROJECT HEAD, ROLE



WHAT IS oikos&Pizza?

oikos&Pizza is one of the many social events organized by oikos St. Gallen and takes place three times per semester. This project aims to get members and newcomers or interested students together in an informal but demanding environment. This takes place in form of an event, where different guest speakers are invited to talk about what sustainability means in their company or their field of work, and how sustainability is applied in practice. The presentation is followed by an Apéro with pizza and drinks, where everyone has the chance to connect with our speakers, with oikos itself or other students interested in sustainability. The friendly atmosphere, the good food and drinks as well as interesting debates characterize this unique get-together of oikos-members and interested people.
